Ius Laboris welcomes CLV Partners, Csabai Lindner and Varga Law Firm (CLV Partners Law Firm) as its new Hungarian member

London (3 October 2011) – CLV Partners Law Firm, one of Hungary's top ranking labour and employment law firms, has joined Ius Laboris, the global Alliance of leading human resources law firms.

CLV Partners Law Firm joins 40 preeminent labour and employment firms from Europe, the Americas and the Asia-Pacific region that have joined forces to create Ius Laboris – a global Alliance providing cost-effective, high quality and seamless services to businesses operating in and across multiple jurisdictions.

“CLV Partners Law Firm is highly regarded in Hungary and enjoys an excellent reputation as a dynamic and innovative law firm in the field of labour and employment law. We are privileged the firm asked to join the Alliance and are confident that their considerable skills and proficiency will add value to both the Alliance and our multinational clients”, said Sam Everatt, Executive Director of Ius Laboris.

“We are very pleased to be joining the Alliance, as we are certain it will represent a competitive advantage in the Hungarian employment law services market”, said Dr. Marianna Csabai, Managing Partner at CLV Partners Law Firm.

Franco Toffoletto, Chairman of the Ius Laboris and Senior Partner at Italian member firm Toffoletto e Soci, said “We are delighted to welcome CLV Partners into our international Alliance. The firm has extensive experience in labour and employment law and we have been working together with CLV Partners on international projects for some time. The addition of a member firm representing such an important country ensures we provide our clients with legal HR services in the jurisdictions that are important for them.”
